TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I am writing this letter to highly recommend JORGE CHRISTIAN SERRANO PUERTOS, who provided his professional services as a Software Engineer remotely through digital platforms for SEVEN-D CONSTRUCTION CO. from January to May of the year two thousand and twenty-six.

As background, our organization is a medium-sized private infrastructure and road construction company established in the city of Chicago, Illinois. During his tenure, Mr. Serrano Puertos took on the responsibility of performing an architectural evaluation, refactoring critical modules, and proposing improvements aimed at increasing the efficiency of the software named "7D-Compass", the web and mobile system used by the company in its daily operations.

The collaboration of Mr. Serrano Puertos was fundamental to the execution of the tasks assigned to him, demonstrating a high level of commitment, responsibility, and professionalism. Among his main contributions and qualities, the following stand out:

- Results orientation and technical capability: Constant focus on meeting objectives with high quality. He successfully developed and implemented the financial reconciliation module from scratch and executed a massive UI/UX refactor focused on optimizing performance and material asset traceability, directly impacting the efficiency of field crews and managerial control.
- Problem solving: Advanced analytical capacity to propose effective solutions to complex technical challenges, optimizing execution times and system resources.
- Teamwork and communication: Excellent willingness to collaborate, communicate complex technical ideas clearly, and coordinate with other members of the development team, fostering a productive and harmonious work environment under agile work methodologies.
- Adaptability and continuous learning: Constant readiness to learn new software engineering tools and methodologies, quickly adapting to the changes and requirements of the company.

The performance of Jorge Christian Serrano Puertos meets the standards of any international organization that has the privilege of hiring him, backed by his technical maturity and solid professional ethics.

Without further ado, I remain at your disposal to expand on any information you consider relevant.

Sincerely,

Agustín Landa Huerta
PGL Project Manager
